

WASHINGTON COUNTY MD. TAX SALE REGISTRATION FORM
Tax Sale Date – June 5, 2012 @ 9:00am

Section 14-818 of the Tax Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland provides that payment of the purchase price on tax sales shall be made on the terms required by the collector. Washington County requires that all purchasers remit on the day of the tax sale the full amount of taxes and other outstanding charges due on the property, whether in arrears or not, together with interest and penalties on the outstanding amounts and expenses incurred in making the sale. This amount is set forth on the tax sale advertisement as the Opening Bid. Payment of the high bid premium is also required on the day of sale. By signing below, you are registering as a bidder for the sale, certifying that the information given hereon is true and accurate to the best of your knowledge, information and belief. By signing below, you are further agreeing to remit the Opening Bid amount and the high bid premium amount to the collector of taxes for Washington County. If the tax collector for Washington County deems it necessary to take legal action against you to enforce this agreement to remit said amount to him, then you hereby agree to pay all court costs, expenses and legal fees incurred by him as the result of said action.
