Variance Request – If requesting a variance, be prepared to tell the Board why the property is unique or why you cannot comply with the strict terms of the Ordinance; in so doing, you should discuss the following criteria, as applicable, excerpted from Section 25.56 of the Washington County Zoning Ordinance:

A variance may be granted by the Board upon a showing of criteria of practical difficulty or undue hardship described below respectively:

- A. Practical Difficulty
1. Strict compliance would unreasonably prevent the use of the property for a permitted purpose or render conformance unnecessarily burdensome; and
 2. Denying the variances would do substantial injustice to the applicant and a lesser relaxation than that applied for would not give substantial relief; and
 3. Granting the variance would observe the spirit of the Ordinance and secure public safety and welfare.
- B. Undue Hardship
1. Strict compliance with the Ordinance would prevent the applicant from securing a reasonable return from or to make reasonable use of the property; and
 2. The difficulties or hardships are peculiar to the property and contrast with those of other property owners in the same district; and
 3. The hardship is not the result of the applicant's own actions.

Special Exception Request – If requesting a special exception, be prepared to discuss the following criteria excerpted from Section 25. 6 of the Washington County Zoning Ordinance:

Where in these regulations certain powers are conferred upon the Board or the approval of the Board is required before a permit may be issued, or the Board is called upon to decide certain issues, the Board shall study the specific property involved, as well as the neighborhood, and consider all testimony and data submitted, and shall hear any person desiring to speak for or against the issuance of the permit. However, the application for a permit shall not be approved where the Board finds the proposed building, addition, extension of building or use, sign, use or change of use would adversely affect the public health, safety, security, morals or general welfare, or would result in dangerous traffic conditions, or would jeopardize the lives or property of people living in the neighborhood. In deciding such matters, the Board shall consider any other information germane to the case and shall give consideration to the following, as applicable:

- (a) The number of people residing or working in the immediate area concerned.
- (b) The orderly growth of a community.
- (c) Traffic conditions and facilities.
- (d) The effect of such use upon the peaceful enjoyment of people in their homes.
- (e) The conservation of property values.
- (f) The effect of odors, dust, gas, smoke, fumes, vibrations, glare and noise upon the use of surrounding property values.
- (g) The most appropriate use of land and structure.
- (h) Decision of the courts.
- (i) The purpose of these regulations as set forth herein.
- (j) Type and kind of structures in the vicinity where public gatherings may be held, such as schools, churches and the like.

The standard for the grant or denial of a special exception is whether there are facts and circumstances that show that the particular use proposed at the particular location proposed would have any adverse effects above and beyond those inherently associated with such a special exception use irrespective of its location within the zoning district.

Administrative Appeal – If charging an administrative appeal, be prepared to discuss the following criteria excerpted from Section 25.4 of the Washington County Zoning Ordinance:

An appeal to the Board may be taken by a person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, commission or bureau of the County affected by any decision of the Planning and Zoning Commission or the Historic District Commission.
