

2022- 2023 Farm of the Year Application

Within your application please include involvement in community and Ag activities, technological and management advances, soil and water management, conservation practices, machinery innovations, safety strategies, marketing, crop and livestock production records and any other criteria that make your farm an outstanding farm.

Deadline: September 23, 2022

Return to: Leslie Hart, Agricultural Business Development
Washington County Department of Business Development
100 W. Washington Street, Suite 1401, Hagerstown, MD 21740;
301-573-7039 or 240-313-2284 or lhart@washco-md.net

Farm and Owner Name:

Mailing Address:

Phone - Home, Cell, Other:

Email:

Physical Address of farm if different than mailing address:

Type of Farm:

Owned or rented/leased? Acreage:

Does this farm have a nutrient management plan?

Driving directions to the farm:

Production, please include at least 3 years of records

Proficiencies in production methods:

How has the farm planned for the future?

How has the farm planned for the next generation?

Conservation practices?

Innovations that can be found on the farm:

Why are you dedicated to agriculture?

Provide a list of any and all community activities:

List all family members' names who work on this farm:

Number of paid employees:

Why should your farm be Washington County's Farm of the Year?

Additional Comments: