ITEM NO. 2: Inquiry: I also have a State of Maryland construction license and was told I need a Hagerstown license also as I am bidding on a project in Hagerstown. Hagerstown is in Washington County, so is it true my State of Maryland construction license is welcome in Washington County but not so in the city of Hagerstown, which is in Washington County? Response: A State of Maryland is the only license required for the Interior Painting at the Washington County Detention Center.

ITEM NO. 3: Inquiry: In regard to the Interior Painting project @ Detention center, can you please clarify the prep work for the railing in jail. The area they said to scrape but it is gummy and we discussed at walkthrough if it needs taken down to bare metal with stripper. Please confirm what prep work is required for the bid

Response: There are some areas that are gummy and may require being stripped down to bare metal with stripper and some of the railing areas are already bare metal.
